PRIVACY NOTICE FOR PUPILS, PARENTS AND GUARDIANS

Who Will Own My Data Once I Submit It?

Tattenhall Park Primary School

Why Do You Need My Information?

We use the pupil data:

- to support pupil learning
- to communicate with parents
- to facilitate secure online payments
- to monitor and report on pupil attainment and progress
- to monitor behaviour and attendance
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to safeguard pupils
- to assess the quality of our services
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing

The categories of pupil information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, unique pupil number and address)
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility)
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- Assessment information
- Exclusions/behavioural information
- Relevant medical information
- Special educational needs information
- Post 16 learning information

What Allows You To Use My Information?

We collect and process pupil information as part of our public functions under both the Data Protection Act and Article 6, part (e) of the General Data Protection Regulation.

The legislation and guidance that allows us to do this in the UK includes, but is not limited to:

- The Education Pupil Registration \(England\) Regulations 2006
- Education \(Information About Individual Pupils\) \(England\) Regulations 2013
- Education Act 2002
- Education Act 2011
- Government Guidance on Schools and Education

Who Will My Information Be Shared With?

We routinely share pupil information with:

- schools that the pupils attend after leaving us
- our local authority
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- NHS
- software packages which support secure storage and analysis of information (SIMs, Target Tracker, MyMaths, CPOMS, Dojos & Scopay -worldpay.

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to the Department for Education's website.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the Department for Education as part of statutory data collections, such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the National Pupil Database.

Visit the National Pupil Database \(NPD\) website for further information on the National Pupil Database.

The Department for Education may share information about our pupils from the National Pupil Database with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data in compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit the Department of Education's website.

Do I Have To Provide This Information And What Will Happen If I Don't?

The majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory as part of our public functions under both the Data Protection Act and Article 6, part (e) of the General Data Protection Regulation, when we collect data outside of this, we will rely on your consent to collect and store your personal data.

How Long Will You Keep This Data For And Why?

We hold pupil data in accordance with CWAC Retention Policy. Please refer to our school website. Personal data relating to pupils and their families is stored in line with the school's GDPR Data Protection Policy. We hold electronic pupil data until your child completes their school education as stipulated by the DfE. (18 years of age). When your child moves to their next school, or high school, paper copies of personal data are moved onto that next school. SEN data information is kept until a child is 25.

How Will My Information Be Stored?

Information is stored electronically in most cases, although historic paper records are kept on site and disposed of in line with retention periods. Electronic information is strictly password protected and paper records are securely stored:

- SIMS- personal details and attendance records, attainment
- Behaviour- Dojos
- Safeguarding and welfare- CPOMS (from May 2018)
- Assessment and attainment- Target Tracker
- Academic and curriculum- MyMaths
